SISTER MARY ALICE

Realizing that the present is the cornerstone of the future, that today's student is tomorrow's promise, Sister Alice helped us fulfill our lives and beliefs. Devoted in heart and soul, sure in decision, generous in character, self-interest is alien to her; self-sacrifice is her essence. She walks among us and forges a link between our memories and our dreams.

In a time for looking back, we turn to a memory that will outlive the years. That memory is you - our pioneer faculty. Through the uncertain years of our adolescence, you had patience; you had understanding for what we could not understand; you had love when what in us was selfish. We have richer hearts for having known you at Pope John XXIII Central High.

In gratitude that too often stays unspoken, we dedicate our first yearbook to you: Sister M. Alice and our pioneer faculty.

CHARLES MICHAEL TOMOLILO

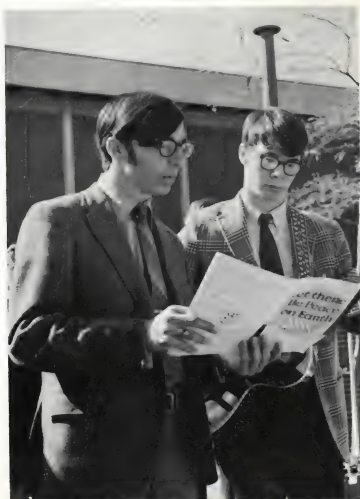

AUGUST 6, 1952

AUGUST 25, 1969

This year, 1970, our tree has flowered. We have blossomed into graduation; all but one. It is only in falling from it's tree that the rosy apple knows the solid ground of destiny, and, so knowing sees beyond the winter to the resurrection of Spring. "For what it to die but to stand naked in the wind and to melt into the sun? And what is to cease breathing, but to free the breath from its restless tides, that it may rise and expand and seek God unencumbered?" (Gibran)

In the most special way, we, the class of 1970, dedicate our yearbook to Charles Tomolilo; first among us to embark upon eternity.

"All we are saying . . .
is give peace a chance"

"There are places
I remember
all my life."

"These pages are windows
And windows are
to see through.
These are the human things."

"You have to make the good times yourself. . .

Take the little times and make them into big times."

"They are one person.
They are two alone.
They are three together.
They are for each other."

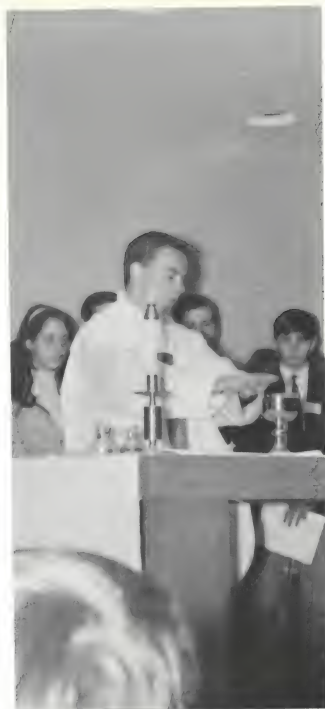

"Time it was,
 And what a time
 it was,
 It was . . .
 A time of innocence,
 A time of
 confidences,
 Long ago . . .
 it must be . . .
 I have a photograph Preserve your memories;
 They're all that's left you."

"It's been a long time coming It's going to be a long time gone. . .
 I never want to finish what I've begun with you."

"And in the end the love you take
is equal to the love. . .
you make."

"There are places I remember
in my life
Though some have changed,
Some forever not for better
Some have gone and some remain...
In my life I've loved them all."

"Your time has come to shine..."

all your dreams on their way."

"Hey, I've nothing to do today but smile."

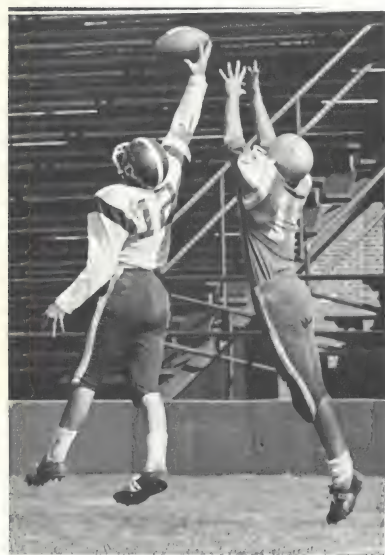

"Every time we say hello
to some new encounter
we're on our way
toward goodbye.
Some distance
from the actual phrase
but moving toward it all the same.
The distance between those two words becomes a little less
as we grow older.
Be aware then
that tomorrow
is only tomorrow.
There is nothing to fear about tomorrow
except the coming of another day.
But two against a winter morning
are sure to claim one more victory over chance and trouble."

"Ask me and I will play
All the love that I hold inside."
